KILLED BY MISTAKE TERRIBLY BURNED A VERMONT GIRL FOR BRIGADIER POSTS

General Kozlov Was Taken for General Trepoff

Tragedy Occurred in Presence of Several Thousand Spectators—Young Man Fired Four Shots at Kozlov—Assassin Refused to Give His Name

ST. PETERSBURG, July 15.—Additional details of the assassination of Gen. Kozlov, of the headquarters staff in the park at Peterhof on Saturday, proved beyond question that the murderer believed he was killing Gen. Trepoff. The tragedy occurred at 9:50 in the evening in the presence of several thousand persons who were listening to the music in the English park adjoining the park of Alex. under Palace, where the Imperial family and General Trepoff reside. A young man, dressed in the clothes of a workman, seeing Gen. Kozlov, who resembled Gen. Trepoff, took a photograph from his pocket to compare it with Kozlov's features as if to make sure of his identity. The man then drew a pistol and fired four shots at Kozlov who fell mortally wounded and expired on the spot. The assassin started to flee but Prince Andromonoff seized him and turned him over to the police who threatened the crowd shouted. "Launch him!" for the prisoner was conducted safely to the police headquarters. When he was searched Trepoff's photograph was found in the assassin's pocket having in doubt regarding the identity of the person he intended to kill. The assassin refused to give his name although he openly avowed that he was a member of the revolutionary organization and the police have not yet been able to find out his name.

Gen. Kozlov was not involved in politics. He married a granddaughter of the famous marshal Count Alexander Suvoroff.

Miss Engla Olsen in Gas Explosion

At Home of Charles H. McEvoy in Beacon Street Last Evening—Lighted a Match in Room Filled With Gas

Miss Engla Olsen, a domestic in the employ of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. McEvoy of 615 Beacon street, was the victim of an explosion of illuminating gas last evening, and had a narrow escape from death.

At about 10 o'clock the residents in the vicinity of Beacon and Eighteenth streets were startled by the report of a falling glass. Then an alarm from box 132 was rung in and a great crowd responded with the fire apparatus to find the McEvoy residence in flames and the unfortunate girl lying in the yard suffering from bad burns on the head, face and neck. The house has been closed for some time, the family being at their summer home in Tyngsboro, and last night Miss Olsen returned to Lowell from Tyngsboro to attend Sunday service, intending to remain at the house over night. About 10 o'clock she went to the house and unlocked the door went into a small entry. The odor of gas was strong but did not alarm her and she lighted a match and pushed open the kitchen door. Immediately the explosion took place and its force blew the unfortunate girl out of the door into the yard.

The force of the explosion was such that the curtains in the kitchen were ripped from their hangings and blown several yards through the windows and landed in a tree quite a distance away. On the side of the house from which the girl was blown into the yard the curtains and glass were scattered into the next yard and struck the opposite house.

The fire itself did not amount to much, for once the gas had been consumed or blown out, the blaze was confined to the more inflammable material in the kitchen and heavy rooms. The damage will not be heavy.

The gas had leaked from a detached rubber pipe connecting gas range in kitchen with the pipes, and judging from the amount of gas in the house it must have been leaking for a week. Miss Olsen was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Baran and was attended by Miss Maud E. Myers, a trained nurse who lives at 18 Eighteenth street. The burns were treated and the girl was cared for until the arrival of Dr. Simpson. Her hair and eyebrows were singed, and the skin was burned from her face, neck and arms. She suffered intense agony but still probably recovered.

It was impossible to reach Mr. McEvoy last evening and Officers Riley and Corcoran took charge of property. Many of the neighbors were on their lawns at the time and in a few moments a large crowd was on the scene. In less than a minute after the explosion the fire alarm was ringing.

Miss Olsen's condition was so serious this morning that it was deemed advisable to have her removed to the hospital for treatment. The burns caused by the explosion kept her in terrible agony all night and this morning when Mr. McEvoy arrived from the country this course was decided upon.

Is Honorable Bourke Cockran's Fiancée

ST. JOHNSBURY, Vt., July 15.—The announcement from Manila of the engagement of Miss Annie L. Bourke, daughter of Gen. Bourke, to Honorable Bourke Cockran of New York, has created great interest in her old home and was the principal topic of conversation here last evening. Miss Bourke was born nearly 30 years ago, her mother dying in 1892 and leaving three daughters, Miss Annie L. Bourke, and Marie and Mable. Miss Annie L. Bourke died about eight years ago.

Miss Annie attended the public schools and St. Johnsbury academy and when in her teens accompanied her father with the other officers to Samoa, where her father was first land commissioner and later chief justice of the islands. It was there that the family made the acquaintance of Robert Louis Stevenson, and when the noted author learned that Miss Annie's birthday came on October 15, he wrote her a letter on that day, which he called his "birthday letter." This unique document, executed in form with Lloyd Osborne, Stevenson's son-in-law, and one of the witnesses and hearing date of June 12, 1905, is in Mr. Stevenson's own handwriting and is in Judge Loe's private safe in his home. The document authorized her to drop her maiden initial, H. and add to her name "London" at least in private. Miss Loe followed instructions and has since used the middle name that Stevenson gave her.

The family returned to the home in St. Johnsbury in 1905, bringing up with them entirely with furniture, draperies and souvenirs from the South sea, many of the articles being presents to the Miss from Stevenson's children.

In May President McKinley appointed Judge Loe to the second Philippine commission and the daughter accompanied him to Manila, where she busied herself at the official banquets and private parties they charmed all guests by their brilliant powers of conversation and their attractive personality. About two years ago Miss Annie felt obliged to leave Manila, as the climate did not agree with her and she has since lived in California. She left San Francisco for a short trip just before the earthquake, but lost in that disaster all her personal effects, including many oriental souvenirs of value. It was in California that she first met the New York congressman, and it is announced that the wedding will take place in Washington in the fall.

Gov. Gen. Ide resigns his commission in September and is planning to return home with his daughter.

The future wife of the democratic chief of the islands is a charming young woman of striking beauty, and by reason of her life in foreign lands possessed of liberal culture.

Since the earthquake she has been at a sanatorium at Santa Barbara.

Charged With Being Drunk

Every mail brought to city hall since Friday has contained a large number of return postal cards sent out by Mayor Corey seeking information relative to the establishment of a dual telephone system in this city. It has been stated by members of the board of aldermen and people interested in the new venture that if the matter was ever left to the people they would sanction it, but the return of the postal cards from those supposed to have a grievance shows that the people are very much opposed to the dual system.

According to the postals received it has been shown that out of ten replies 24 are opposed to the new system and 64 are in favor.

Albion Allen and Walter spent nearly the entire morning today at city hall with Promoter Adams and a few others talking over the project and it was also incidentally mentioned that suit would be brought against several newspapers claiming to the fact that they stood up for the people's rights instead of humoring a hot case.

Albion Allen and Walter spent a good portion of yesterday in Lawrence looking into the systems and when he arrived at city hall this morning he presented the papers to one of the hall's of the hall to read about. Present at the meeting were several aldermen and a like number of members of the lower board who would like to get in on the new franchise scheme with Congressman Evans.

While the franchise has been granted to the Markham Valley Independent by the board of aldermen it is known that the mayor as a variant of the people at large will veto the order and it is hoped by some of the aldermen who have voted for the franchise that enough of votes will be on hand when the veto is sent in to defeat it. The promoter's desiring work and means to hold the city's votes out of the hands of the city at the last regular meeting. Alderman Jones it is said is preparing a speech for strengthening the official system but others say that Allen can beat him at will and then force them to do anything he pleases.

THE COLONEL WON.

In police court on Saturday Col. James H. Carmichael appeared for Mary Allen, who was charged with using lewd and lascivious language toward another woman. Mr. Carmichael asked a motion to quash on the ground that the words used by his client were not lewd and lascivious. Judge Fisher took the matter under advisement and today the decision in favor of the defendant was given.

THE DRUNKEN OFFENDERS.

Five young men with long records for drunkenness were disposed of by Judge Pickman. James Reilly was under suspended sentence; the suspension was revoked and he was sent to jail. It was the 17th time in 8 years for Terrence McQuade and he was fined $5. Walter J. Ashworth received a suspended sentence of three months to come to jail. John Montgomery and William H. Hanchett were each fined $5 each. Thomas J. Egan, 614 North Main street, was fined $5. Four first offenders were each fined $5 each.

WAS WELL KNOWN FINANCIER.

LONDON, July 15.—Alfred Beit, the well known South African financier, died today. He had been in poor health for some time.

Mr. Beit who was born at Hamburg in 1853 was said to have been the richest man in London and who controlled the output of gold in South Africa, was at one time alleged to be forming a gold trust in which the names of prominent American financiers were mentioned. Mr. Beit gave large sums of money to the Red Cross and other institutions and recently gave $250,000 to found a university at Hamburg.

MASKED ROBBERS

Broke Into Car House and Got Several Hundred Dollars

KENNEBUNK, Me., July 15.—Five armed and masked men overpowered and bound the night watchman and another employee at the car house of the Atlantic shore line railroad at Town House crossing early today, took several hundred dollars from the unlocked safe and escaped, unharmed. The watchman was severely injured by a blow over the head from a revolver butt.

Night Watchman Ralph Hewey and Mark Goodwin, a construction man, at 12:30 o'clock were eating their mid-week lunch in opposite ends of one of the closed cars inside the car house when they were attacked. They heard some one on the car steps but supposed he was another employee. Then they saw a masked man enter the door and point a revolver at Goodwin's head.

Hewey quickly turned toward the door at the end of the car and faced two robbers held in close proximity to his head by two men who also were masked. He grabbed the muzzle and was exerting all his strength to obtain possession of the revolver when the burglar who was covering Goodwin struck him over the head with the butt of a revolver, rendering him unconscious and cutting a painful gash in his scalp. Hewey and Goodwin were tied separately with wire cord such as is used to hang pictures and bags were put over their heads.

The money in the safe, variously estimated at from $200 to $500, was taken and the three robbers, joined by two who had kept guard outside the house, disappeared in the darkness. It was believed they drove away in a car belonging to the direction of Alfred.

Three men were asleep in a room just over the place where the three men were overpowered but were not awakened until 2 o'clock when Hewey and Goodwin succeeded in freeing themselves and aroused them. The division superintendent, who was notified by telephone, began an investigation with several officers, officers of surrounding towns were notified and the roads were watched for suspicious characters.

BUTTE, Mont., July 15.—The east wall of the Butte hotel collapsed yesterday, toppling over on the Southern hotel, causing its walls to collapse. The loss is $20,000. The clerk at the Southern hotel noticed the break in the walls and warned all the guests who had hardly left the hotel before the crash came.

WAGE QUESTION

Will Probably be Settled in Boston

There is nothing new in the cotton mill wage question in Lowell. The officers of the Textile council and the committee appointed to communicate with the mill agents seem confident that an increase will be granted; an increase as substantial as has been granted in other cotton mill cities.

A mill official in conversation with a representative of The Sun, today said: "No action has as yet been taken relative to the letter sent out by the Textile council, and there is absolutely nothing new to tell you."

A mill official who was heard to discuss the question, said: "This matter will go to the directors first and will be referred back to the agents for paragraph, however, will be written in Boston, and I think the controversy bids fair to be a long one."

A Boston paper says a strike is threatened. This statement has no foundation in fact at the present time. The textile operatives have asked for an increase of wages; no threat of strike has been heard, and the operatives are cheerful in the belief that an increase will be granted.

THAT FRANCHISE

Lowell 'B. B. Association Wants It

It is understood that a special meeting of the New England League will be called today or tomorrow to consider the application of the Lowell Baseball Association for the franchise. A majority of the managers, it is understood, are in favor of giving the franchise to the Lowell Association, which has been in existence since 1890. The association wants to be admitted to the league as a full member. A story was given that the Lowell Association had been refused the franchise in Boston, but this is not true. The association has been in existence since 1890 and has been a member of the league since 1890. The association wants to be admitted to the league as a full member.

Jolly Bachelors' Held Hot Old Time

NEW YORK, July 15.—One man, mostly about 20 years of age, with black eyes and bruised head, and having a whole beer glass on his head, was taken to the hospital of St. Vincent's hospital, where he was treated for a skull fracture. The man was taken to the hospital by a police officer, who was on duty at the time. The man was taken to the hospital by a police officer, who was on duty at the time. DIAMOND NOTES

Frank Shannon who was laid off with a bad thumb was in town today. He is ready to play again.

From some of the things we read one would imagine that all the power and authority in the N. E. League is vested in one individual the Hon. T. Henry Murray. The "Hon. and Exalted" no more, but "Mr. and Mrs. Murray."

THE LOWELL SUN

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, PROPRIETOR.
Member of the Associated Press.

Three Dollars per Year. Twenty-five Cents per Month

The Sun receives the full day service of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, the greatest news-gathering organization in the world. The entire service received over a leased wire, by our own operator, in our own office in The Sun building.

SWORN CIRCULATION OF THE SUN

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1905 was

14,829

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Priotto, pressman of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1906.

JOHN J. HOGAN, Notary Public.

This is a larger circulation than the combined circulation of all the other daily papers in Lowell.

An advertisement placed in The Sun is of more value to the advertiser than if it were inserted in all the other newspapers in Lowell, and the cost of inserting it in The Sun is about ONE-THIRD the price charged by the other papers.

Writing in a London paper relative to President Roosevelt an American correspondent says, Roosevelt, like Washington might be president for life if he would. It is strange how any American could write such nonsense.

At last France has done justice to Captain Dreyfus. But will his persecutors ever be restored in popular opinion? The devotion of his wife has been in a great measure instrumental in his triumphant exoneration.

MARK OF ENTERPRISE

The Lawrence Tribune has issued a twenty-four page paper illustrating the industrial status of Lawrence. The paper shows not only the prosperity of Lawrence but the enterprise of the Tribune. The price of every live American city usually leads the vanguard of prosperity. May it be so in Lawrence.

THE CANNED MEATS POISONOUS.

Seeing that congress refused to pass the pure food bill, the Massachusetts state board of health has taken up the work of examining canned meats for we have a pure food law of our own in this state. The result is alarming to the packers and retailers who will be obliged to throw away a large portion of their stock of canned meats.

AVOID RAILROAD TRACKS

There is always more or less danger in walking on the railroad tracks as the death of Robert Durrough and many other victims will testify. The man walking on one track and seeing a train approaching in front of him often steps to the other track to be killed by a train unnoticed behind him. Many and many a man and woman have been killed by jumping out of the way of one train and right in front of another. Better keep out of the way of both.

TO OVERTHROW THE OFFICIAL USURPERS.

With Richard Olney at their head, the policyholders who are out to overthrow the management of the New York Life Insurance company will give a good account of themselves. The 1,200,000 policyholders intend to organize and transfer to themselves the power which a few executive officers in New York have usurped and held to the injury of the company and for their own aggrandizement. There is little room for doubt that the undertaking now entered upon by the policyholders will be crowned by complete success.

THE INSANITY PLEA

"Emotional insanity" is a new invention of the alienists. It is the brand of insanity under which Thaw labored when he shot White. Emotional insanity is applied to the mental disturbance or agitation experienced when one man becomes jealous or angry with another and is imbued with a desire for vengeance. Impulsive insanity we presume expresses another phase of the subject and one which may serve as a defense for a millionaire accused of murder. These forms of insanity if all combined at the same time and in the same person would not constitute even a mild case of the old common place insanity but the experts have inventive minds when called upon to defend a millionaire charged with murder.

All the various phases and forms of insanity ascribed in such cases are comprised in what is commonly known as an outbreak of temper or a sudden yielding to impulse by an individual wholly responsible.

Whether intelligent jurors can be bluffed in this fashion remains to be seen. We do not believe they will swallow all the insanity pleas being manufactured for the defense of Thaw.

THE REPUBLICANS BEAR THE BLAME.

The republican party has reason to be ashamed of the course its representatives are taking at city hall. They have lost public confidence and with a couple of exceptions are looked upon with distrust as men who openly, but fully and for their own ends, oppose the best interests of the city of Lowell. We may say here in reference to this matter that should the franchise grab be effected, there is not an official, an officer or promoter connected with the scheme who could be elected as pound keeper next fall. The public is thoroughly aroused upon this question and nothing but a reversal of the motion taken will reinstate in public favor any of the aldermen who voted for the second telephone franchise.

The democrats have nothing to do with this franchise grabbing scheme. They have refused to allow themselves to be drawn into it and the public appreciates their action and their loyalty to the city's interests almost as keenly as it despises and condemns the action of the six republicans who voted for the franchise. We verily believe that the rank and file of the republican party feels humiliated at the action of their representatives at city hall and well they may.

THE RAILROAD RATE BILL.

Among the leading provisions of the new railway rate law are the following:

Express companies, sleeping car companies and oil pipe lines are made common carriers.

The issuance of free transportation is prohibited except for charity, to relieve public distress or for those engaged in the transportation business and members of their families.

The giving of a rebate or of a concession is made punishable by imprisonment.

Railroads are required to divorce themselves from all business except that of a common carrier, it being made illegal for them to transport their own products.

The interstate commerce commission is given the power to prescribe the method to be employed in accounting of railroads.

Full access is given agents of the commission to all records and books of account to be kept by railroads, and falsifying records is punishable by imprisonment.

Failure to obey orders of the commission is punishable by a fine of $5000 a day.

This law will cause a reorganization of the coal roads that control the coal mines of Pennsylvania and have it in their power to levy tribute on every household in the land by fixing an exorbitant price upon their coal and justifying it by the cost of production and the high freight rates. It is high time this iniquity were broken up, but the companies will find some convenient way of making the coal mines a side issue so that they can still derive part of the profits.

THE ORIENT

REPORT OF OUR COMMERCE WITH THAT SECTION

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The annual report of the United States Commerce Department for 1905, in the form of a monograph just issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor through its Bureau of Statistics, is a most interesting and comprehensive survey of the trade of the United States with the Orient. It is the first of its kind, and is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the trade of the United States with the Orient. The report is divided into two parts, the first of which is a general survey of the trade of the United States with the Orient, and the second of which is a detailed survey of the trade of the United States with the Orient.

The report shows that the trade of the United States with the Orient has increased steadily during the past few years. In 1905, the total value of the trade was $1,100,000,000, an increase of 10 per cent over 1904. The report also shows that the trade of the United States with the Orient is becoming more diversified. In 1905, the value of the trade in manufactures was $400,000,000, an increase of 15 per cent over 1904. The report also shows that the trade of the United States with the Orient is becoming more important. In 1905, the value of the trade in manufactures was $400,000,000, an increase of 15 per cent over 1904.

The report also shows that the trade of the United States with the Orient is becoming more important. In 1905, the value of the trade in manufactures was $400,000,000, an increase of 15 per cent over 1904.

NIGHT EDITION

HOW ABOUT THIS?

Respectable Citizen Lodged in Prison Cell

Taken From His Home at One O'clock This Morning — Police Court Judge Discharged Him — Deputy Welch Received Lively Shaking Up

John F. Sayers, 45 years old and born in the city of Lowell, a man of enviable reputation, was arraigned before Judge Pickman in police court today on a complaint charging him with assault and battery on William H. Graves. Mr. Sayers was found not guilty.

D. J. Donahue appeared for Mr. Sayers and he sought to show that considerable feeling, on the part of the police, had entered into the case.

Mr. Sayers was arrested at his home at one o'clock this morning, taken to police station and locked up. It was impossible for him to secure bail at that hour, and he was obliged to remain in a cell until 10 o'clock today at which hour he was taken from the cell to the police court and was obliged to occupy a seat in the police court dock. Such treatment did not appeal to Mr. Donahue as the kind that should be meted out to a native of Lowell, to a man who by hard work, honesty and sobriety had accumulated property of which he was justly proud, property that meant revenue to the city of Lowell. Mr. Donahue insisted that there would be an aftermath to the police court hearing.

The complainant said that he went to Sayers' home to collect money for lumbric, as he alleged to have been taken from the South common and that Sayers assaulted him.

"What did you do?" asked Mr. Donahue.

"I checked him away," said Mr. Graves.

"What do you mean by checking?"

"Just the same as you would do."

"I wouldn't do anything of the kind," said Mr. Donahue. "I know the law too well."

Judge Pickman allowed that he would like to know what Mr. Graves meant by "checking."

"Come," said his honor, "let us have a demonstration. Deputy Welch, you are good, strong fellow, have Mr. Graves show the court what happened and what words Mr. Sayers used."

Deputy Welch stepped up to the railing of the witness stand. Mr. Graves was coked and primed for the demonstration. No sooner had the deputy landed within reach of Mr. Graves than the latter grabbed him by the shoulder and shook him so violently that it looked like a case of "first fall" against the deputy. Mr. Graves is a very powerful man and it was fortunate for the reputation of the police department that the most stalwart of its officers took part on the demonstration.

The golden epaulets on the deputy's shoulders were pulled down upon his chest while the demonstration repeated the words alleged to have been used by Sayers, and the court room resounded with the volume and force of his voice.

It was a somewhat sensational moment and so funny that even the court failed to suppress a little laugh, and the deputy after collecting his scattered senses and relieving himself of several kinks, joined in the laugh.

Later, however, the deputy was heard to say that had the witness, ushered in a few more shakes, he would have done a little demonstrating himself.

"That Graves is a pretty husky fellow," remarked a reporter.

"Strong as a moose," replied the deputy.

Witnesses for the defendant, Mrs. Sayers and another woman, who were in the house when the alleged assault occurred, said that the men did not lay hands upon each other and that there was no forcible election.

The weight of evidence was in favor of the defendant and he was found not guilty.

BRUTAL ASSAULT

Man and Woman Murderously Attacked

A brutal assault case, that of John and Joseph Lebednik, charged with assault on Mr. and Mrs. George Stanis, came up on continuance in police court today.

The assault took place in Davidson street a week ago yesterday.

George Stanis was slashed with a knife and his wife was knocked down and kicked by one of the defendants. The assault, as far as could be learned, was entirely unprovoked. D. J. Donahue appeared for the commonwealth and J. J. Murphy for the defendants. The Lebedniks were found guilty. John was ordered to pay a fine of $25 and Joseph was fined $15.

STORE RAIDED

Liquor inspectors Atkinson and Duncan visited Toupin's drug store in Cheever street Sunday and seized a quantity of liquor consisting of 40 gallons of gin, 20 gallons of whiskey and several gallons of brandy and wines.

Another Tour of Inspection Today Charged With Being Drunk With Clerk Crawford On Stand

Chairman Joseph Jennings of the police board, and Supr. William H. Moffatt visited thirty-two saloons in Lowell this forenoon to ascertain if the changes ordered had been attended to. The chairman and the superintendent took on four off for dinner and returned then to an inspection.

They were satisfied with conditions as they found them. Chairman Jennings said that, with a few minor exceptions, all changes ordered had been made.

"Is there any special comment you would care to make relative to the Sunday business?"

"I visited the hotels yesterday in company with Supr. Moffatt and I will report to the full board at our next meeting. I was well pleased with conditions as we found them."

"It is the board's intention to enforce the Sunday law to the letter. We realize that it is next to impossible to eliminate drunkenness on Sunday, but we will do what we can to reduce it to a minimum."

"It is up to the hotel-keepers to help us, and those who serve liquor to drunken men or allow drunken men on their premises will be made to suffer the consequences."

"As we approached the old Washington tavern, and while at a distance so as to be unobserved, a man under the influence of liquor attempted to enter and was promptly ejected."

"The proprietor did the ejecting and I considered his action a very commendable one. If the proprietors of all hotels will do likewise, refuse to serve to adult drunken men it will render matters less complicated for us."

"The liquor inspectors and the patrolmen on their beats will keep a close watch on the hotels and we hope to see a marked improvement in the very near future."

"What is your purpose in visiting police court every day?" queried the reporter.

"First of all," said Mr. Jennings, "I want to familiarize myself with the work from start to finish and by attending police court, especially on Monday mornings, I can get an idea of the districts where the greatest number of Sunday drinks are sold."

"There are conditions existing in three or four of the hotels, relative to Sunday rooms that the board will consider at its next meeting."

Robert C. Arnold was arraigned before Judge Pickman in police court today. Despite the fact that Robert was dressed in ordinary pantaloons and a black shirt with white cuffs, he was a fine specimen, I don't think. He tips his hat to me in the street, and that's all. He does not contribute to my support or the support of his children."

Mrs. Arnold was very inquisitive and the court arrived at the conclusion that she had had "something to take" before coming to court and he said he did not want to find a man guilty on the testimony of a woman under the influence of liquor.

"I didn't get up till 1 o'clock and I was here at 10 o'clock, so I didn't have much time to drink. I admit that I'm in the habit of taking a drop but I didn't have any today." Her story didn't go with the court and Mrs. Arnold was very angry when her husband and master was set free.

ANOTHER NON-SUPPORT CASE

Philip J. Albert was charged with failing to provide proper and lawful support for his wife who after telling her story to the court, asked that her husband be given another chance. Judge Pickman gave Albert a good talking to and placed him on probation.

THE COLONEL WON

In police court on Saturday Col. James H. Curran appeared for Mary Allen, who was charged with using lewd and lascivious language toward another woman. Mr. Curran, toward another woman. Mr. Curran, toward another woman. Mr. Curran, toward another woman.

He was found guilty and sentenced to the house of correction for six months. The court was very much amused by the colonel's conduct.

THE DRUNKEN OFFENDERS

Five young men with long records for drunkenness were disposed of by Judge Pickman. James Butler was under suspended sentence; the suspension was revoked and he was sent to jail. It was the 17th time in 5 years for Terrence McQuade and he was fined $5.

Walter J. Alworth received a suspended sentence of three months to run on jail. John Montgomery and William H. Hapsham were fined $5 each. Thomas J. Ellis, full four months. John J. Shea, state farm. Bernard McInerney was fined $5. Four first offenders were fined $2 each.

WAGE QUESTION

Will Probably be Settled in Boston

There is nothing new in the cotton mill wage question in Lowell. The officers of the Textile council and the committee appointed to communicate with the mill agents seem confident that an increase will be granted; an increase as substantial as has been granted in other cotton mill cities.

A mill official in conversation with a representative of The Sun, today, said: "No action has as yet been taken relative to the letter sent out by the Textile council, and there is absolutely nothing new to tell you."

A mill official who was heard to discuss the question, said: "This matter will go to the directors first and will be referred back to the agents for their recommendation. The pending paragraph, however, will be written in Boston, and I think the controversy bids fair to be a long one."

A Boston paper says a strike is threatened. This statement has no foundation in fact at the present time. The textile operatives have asked for an increase of wages; no threat of strike has been heard, and the operatives are cheerful in the belief that an increase will be granted.

CHAMPION SKATER.
Earl Reynolds, the champion ice and roller skater of the world, is practicing at the Canobie lake park skating rink this week. His skating has captivated the skating enthusiasts at Canobie. To enumerate his different feats would take volumes of space, but a few of the special tricks he does are the whirling devilish act on one foot, two feet, ice and heel all maneuvers of inward and outward rolls, the different dances as well as many evolutions which are difficult to describe.

The hearing in the case of Charles Cowley vs. the City of Lowell and the Locks and Canals company, which was to have been resumed before Auditor Hammond in the court house this morning was delayed over an hour by the proactivity of Frank E. Dunbar, counsel for the Locks and Canals company, and then proceeded without him.

When the time came for the hearing to proceed Mr. Dunbar was not present and Auditor Hammond after telephoning for him several times and watching several cars pass, noted that the hearing proceeded without him.

Auditor Hammond decided to wait until 1 o'clock and when Mr. Dunbar did not appear at that time called counsel in the case together and decided to proceed with the case against the city of Lowell and not leave any evidence that related to the connection of the Locks and Canals company with the case until such time as Lowell Dunbar would arrive.

The first witness called was John P. Crawford, clerk of the Lowell Water board who was present with his records. Others present as witnesses were City Engineer, Edward S. Wines, Thomas of the water department and the nurse who attended Mr. Cowley during his illness.

John Crawford, clerk of the water board, submitted reports of the water board and board of health for examination. The water board reports submitted were those of 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, and 1911 for year 1901.

Those which contained notification of the condition of the water of the Merrimack river were admitted as evidence and there was considerable argument over the others.

EXTRA

TWO PROPOSITIONS

In Regard to Lowell's Base Ball Franchise

N. E. League Committee Men Here Today and Heard Propositions From Two Sources—Old Stockholders Ask Where They Come In—Action Deferred Until Friday

The committee of the New England League in charge of the affairs of the Lowell baseball team show the abandonment of the franchise by Manager Lake and of the American House this noon to consider the future of the team and not with two conflicting propositions which necessitated a lower drawn out meeting, though likely at times.

The committee consists of President T. H. Munn, Manager Lake, of the Lawrence team and Manager Leonard of the Lynn team. The central figure of the meeting, Manager Lake, was conspicuous by his absence and he was represented by Mr. John Adams. The Lowell baseball association, which includes many of Lowell's most prominent citizens was represented by Rep. Martin H. Cowley and about 15 well known business and professional men. Young Mr. Harward, Lowell's second baseman who prefers to play under the name of Winn was present with James F. Owens as counsel.

The meeting was called for 11 o'clock and at that time the committee went upstairs and had a private conference with Mr. Winn. Then they called the representatives of the association before them and Rep. Cowley opened the discussion after which several members turned up to speak upon some of the questions which were before the committee.

President Munn appeared delighted to see such a representative gathering of citizens present and stated that with their support he would be glad to put in his own money and run the team. Rep. Adams showed his books that the only outstanding debts that the new management would have to assume were $20 for the uniforms which Manager Lake had not paid and some $15 besides.

President Munn called attention to the fact that in the eight days that the team had been in charge of the committee it had made a little money. He suggested that the association hold an executive meeting to decide upon some committee to accept the franchise.

As the league men were about to withdraw from the meeting to give the association an opportunity to discuss the matter, President Munn was asked what attitude he thought Manager Lake would take in regard to the ball grounds in the case of the association taking the team. Manager Lake replied that the team for the grounds, endorsed by five or six men. Mr. Munn replied that Mr. Lake was a friend of the game and he was sure that there would be no trouble in getting the grounds.

Then a member asked what became of the check of the Lowell Base Ball and Amusement company. Not even Mr. Munn appeared to know of the existence of such a company and it was explained that only in the spring Manager Lake had issued about $25,000 in what was called the Lowell Base Ball and Amusement company holding the controlling interest himself and that most of the money had been given up on the loss. It was the general impression that as Mr. Lake had given up the franchise the stock in that company was wiped out.

The baseball association was then called together and the matter thoroughly discussed. It was finally voted that a committee of two consisting of Rep. Martin H. Cowley and William H. Morrill attend the game today and solicit subscriptions and visit different business men. Mr. Cowley stated that several persons had telephoned him today in regard to subscribing and he was confident that 25 names could be obtained in a very few days. It was also voted to ask the league to postpone the matter of transferring the franchise until one week hence to give the association an opportunity to get in its money, appoint directors, etc.

The league magnates were then invited back to the meeting and with the name Mr. Winn and Mr. Owens. When the proposition of postponing the transfer of the franchise one week came up Pres. Munn demurred and stated that he had been approached with another proposition in which Mr. Winn offered to take the franchise at once and put up $1000 cash, kick away, and unless the association would guarantee to take the franchise in a week he was in doubt as to whether he would accept it or not. He stated that Mr. Winn was in doubt as to whether he would accept it or not. He stated that Mr. Winn was in doubt as to whether he would accept it or not.

Then Mr. Owens arose and put matters in a new light. He stated that the Lowell baseball association had the lease of the grounds and had not violated any of its conditions and hence could hold it and in the event of another association getting the franchise he stated that they might have to look around for grounds to play on. He stated, however, that he appeared at this time for Mr. Winn who had the money to put up at once and he said furthermore that Mr. Winn in taking the team would not be alone but would have associated with him some Lowell men as representative citizens as those who represented the other association. He stated further that Mr. Winn would not only put up his money right away but he would also put up a guarantee that the club would go along next season. It was suggested that new association with the other association but Mr. Owens didn't appear to favor the proposition and said that Mr. Winn wanted to take the team himself with these others with whom he would be associated.

After further discussion more or less satisfactory, principally less, the league members went into executive session and after a short time announced that they would postpone action until Friday of this week.
